Parashat LEKH LEKHA... Abram's flight from his ancestral home in Haran and his initial contact with G-d mark not only the birth of a new religion but also the beginning of a spiritual revolution. The Torah depicts Abram as a man of action and as a human being with a deep capacity to display compassion. In this regard Abram—the first Hebrew—became an example to all future generations of Jews. His life embodied a deep commitment to Gemilut Hessed—acts of loving kindness.
